GIN

Gin is at its simplest a spirit, flavoured with a variety of botanicals with the predominant flavour being juniper. Despite that simple start it is a spirit with a long and turbulent history as well as a vibrant present and future.

Vodka is much more interesting than it might appear to the casual observer. Scrape beneath the surface and you'll find a spirit with a rich and diverse history made from a variety of raw materials each of which affect the finished product's final taste and sometimes flavoured with quite a bewildering array of different fruits, herbs and spices from every corner of the globe.

The multicoloured tapestry of rum styles spanning the Caribbean, Central and South America is as rich as the history and culture that encircles this great spirit. From cocktail-friendly white rum, through to mellow golden examples to molasses-rich navy bottlings no other drink spans such a spectrum of colours and flavours.

TEQUILA

Beyond shots, slammers and hangovers, Tequila is a remarkable drink which can express the nuances of its raw material arguably better than any other spirit on the planet. The key to its unique flavour is the spikily distinctive blue agave plant which gives Tequila its trademark flavour combination of fruit, pepper and spice.

WHISKY

Malt whisky is the 'original' whisky of Scotland. Malt whisky is made only from malted barley in two (occasionally three) copper pot stills by a batch process. 'Single' malt whisky is the product of an individual distillery.

IRISH WHISKEY

The Irish may have been the first distillers in the British Isles and for a brief period in the 19th century, Irish whiskey reigned supreme over its Scottish rival. Boom was followed by bust - and near extinction - but today the good times are back with distilleries popping up all over the Emerald Isle.

JAPANESE WHISKEY

The early years of Japanese whisky are dominated by two men: Masataka Taketsuru and Shinjiro Torii. Taketsuru was famously sent to Scotland in 1918 to learn about whisky-making, studying in Glasgow and getting hands-on experience in Speyside and Campbeltown before returning to Japan with a head full of facts and a Scottish wife!

COGNAC BRANDY

For the past three centuries, Cognac has been almost universally recognised as the finest of all the spirits that are distilled from grapes. It has many incomparable qualities: fruitiness, subtlety of bouquet, intensity, warmth and above all the complexity of the many thousands of styles and flavours from a (predominantly) single grape variety.
